The Magic of Wishful

Picture tree-lined streets adorned with picturesque houses, vibrant local businesses, and a community that's always ready to lend a helping hand. Welcome to Wishful, a town that instantly wraps you in its warmth and leaves you yearning for that quintessential Southern experience. Here, readers get to know not only the main characters and their intricate love stories but also the heartbeat of the town itself.

Wishful transports readers into a world full of relatable and diverse characters who come alive with their flaws, dreams, and unique personalities. From the insightful baker, Mayor Jane Dixon, to the sassy florist, Bebe Kent, each character is a pillar of the Wishful community, adding their own touch of magic to the narrative.

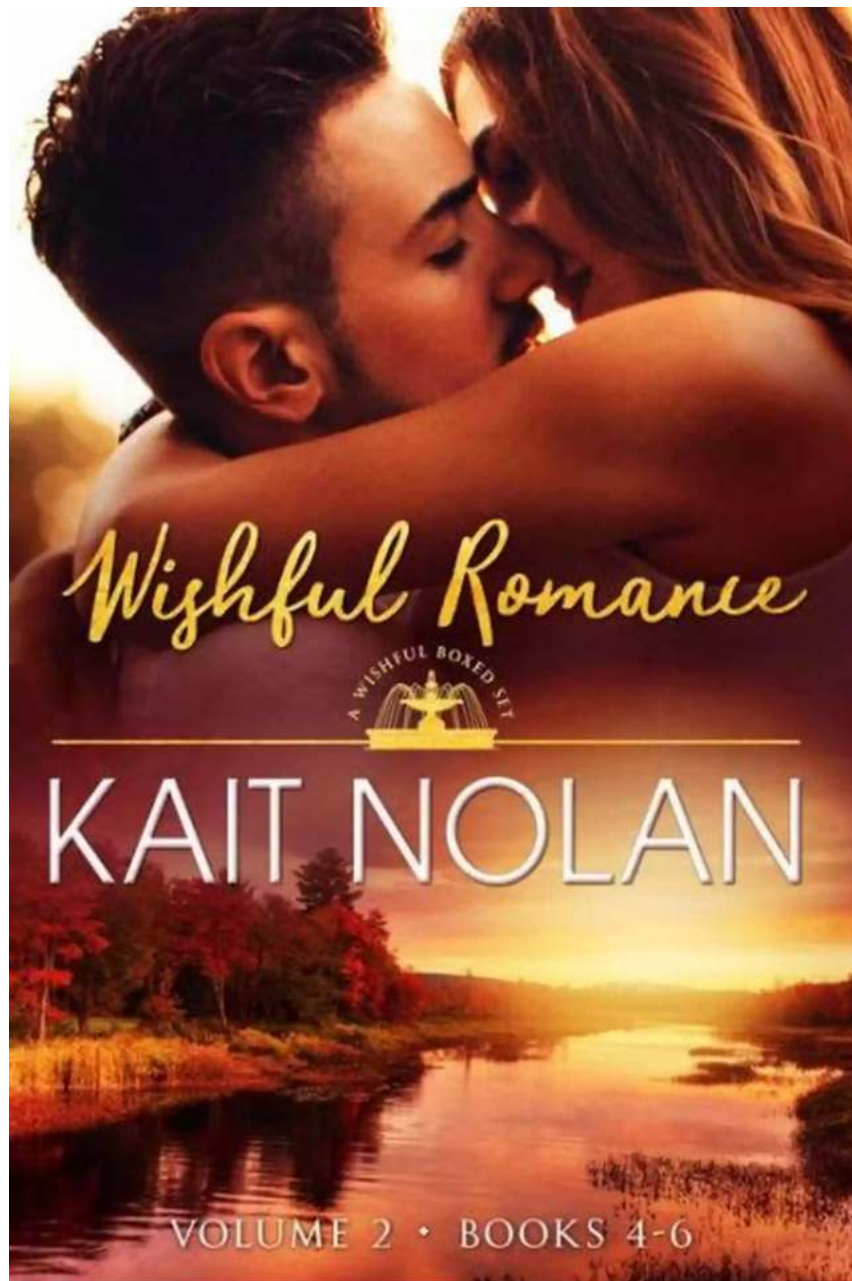

Love, Laughter, and Lifelong Bonds

At the heart of Wishful Romance lies the timeless theme of love. But what sets it apart is its ability to intertwine love with humor, wit, and genuine emotions. Nolan brilliantly weaves compelling love stories that tug at your heartstrings while tickling your funny bone.

The Wishful series isn't merely a collection of standalone novels; instead, it sets out on a grand endeavor to unfold the interconnected lives of characters across multiple books. This interconnectedness extends beyond just the romantic relationships, highlighting the significance of strong friendships and emotional bonds in a small town setting.

Small-Town Delights

One cannot explore the world of Wishful Romance without mentioning the mouthwatering delights that grace each page. Southern cuisine, renowned for its comfort and soul-food qualities, takes center stage in this series. From flaky biscuits to mouthwatering pies, readers will find themselves craving these sumptuous dishes as they read through the pages.

And let's not forget about the beauty of the South itself. Wishful indulges readers in the rich tapestry of Southern landscapes, accentuating the small-town charm. Whether it's the golden-hued sunsets, sprawling fields of wildflowers, or the peaceful serenity of the nearby lake - the descriptions will transport you to a world that oozes romance, tranquility, and nostalgia.

A madcap modern marriage of convenience tale sure to leave fans begging for more

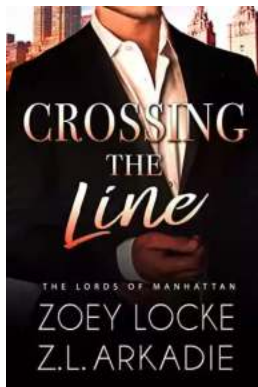

Maybe there hasn't been actual blood, other than a few paper cuts, but Myles has put plenty of sweat into his independent, local newspaper, and he's even willing to admit to a few manly tears. Certainly, the paper has been his mistress since he moved to the small town of Wishful, Mississippi, and he doesn't feel it's hyperbolic in the least to say it owns a piece of his soul. He's building his dream, independent of the life laid out for him by his family, and that means everything. There's nothing he wouldn't do to ensure its success.

Piper fell hard for Myles when they co-starred in the production of White Christmas that saved Wishful's historic Madrigal Theater. Not in love, she's careful to remind herself, but into very serious like, and certainly outrageous, chemistry-fueled attraction. But Piper knows that the bright lights of the stage can wreak havoc with perspective. She's been burnt by them before, when an on-stage passion fizzled into disappointment and heartache. That's why she put on the brakes with Myles, and she admits to herself that the fact that he played by her rules and waited only adds to his appeal.

When Myles tells her that a major investor is pulling out of the paper, leaving him with a huge loan to repay or lose his control over what he's built, Piper is devastated for him. But when he jokingly admits that the best option he's come up with is to marry a showgirl to gain access to a trust fund, well, that just sounds like a plan to Piper. After all, why not take this great guy on marriage test drive? He's worth having just for this moment, however long it lasts. But as their fake marriage turns alarmingly real, they'll have to decide if they're in it for the moment or forever.

Welcome to Wishful, Mississippi, a small town with big hearts, where folks come together to make their dreams come true. We first met Myles and Piper when they auditioned for White Christmas in BE CAREFUL, IT'S MY HEART, when another of Piper's zany schemes helped bring her friends Tyler and Brody together. We followed their story in THE MATCHMAKER MANEUVER, a newsletter exclusive novelette, which tells the story behind Piper's cooling off period. But if you haven't read either of those, don't worry about jumping in here. Every Wishful story can stand on its own, just like the sassy women of this charming, southern town.
