Florida's Gulf Coast is not known for life threatening waves.

No longer with a government agency, Ellie O'Conner is finally enjoying the peaceful life she's been hoping for. But when tragedy hits close to home, Ellie and her friends are sent reeling, trying to catch their breath.

After three decades with the DEA, Jet Jahner has gone into private investigation. When someone brings him a case about a missing girl, he struggles to find a worthy lead.

A cryptic email asking for help ends up leading Ellie down a path that yields more questions than answers.

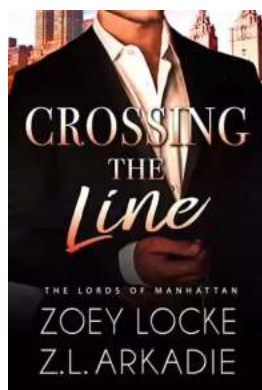

And what they find just may send them both to the bottom.

But sometimes, the waves break hard.
