Bestselling novelist Sandy Morgan moves back to Mallard Cove Marina to stay, but he brings along a new companion with an interesting family tree. But that's not all that came back with him; he has a stalker who's hot on his trail right before he's scheduled to leave on a reader and writer cruise to Bermuda. Six-hundred miles of open ocean, and nowhere to hide. Some on this cruise won't make it back alive. Can some words of advice and a little gris-gris from a Haitian voodoo priestess keep him from being one of them?
