He was a child from the slums, living at the bottom of the social ladder. Because of a girl who was his childhood friend, he got into a good high school, which made him always grateful.

With his poorly developed Brain Domain, he had little chance of getting into college and becoming a cultivator, so he had been working hard for cultivation resources. But six months before the entrance exam, the girl rejected him, saying that they were from two worlds and should not meet again in the future.

In a depressed mood, he accidentally opened the heirloom, activated the talent rune, and set out on the path of cultivation. Since then, a legend of a super god was born.
