Loxmere is a realm brimming with magical creatures, enchanting landscapes, and mystical wonders. Cordelia finds herself at the Whitehall School of Witchcraft, where she must navigate the intricate politics of the magical society while honing her newfound powers.

The series takes readers on a journey through Cordelia's growth, from a vulnerable newcomer to a powerful sorceress. Along the way, she faces numerous challenges, battles dark forces, and forms unbreakable friendships. Cordelia's resilience, wit, and bravery make her the perfect heroine for both young and adult readers.

Unveiling Cordelia's Inner Strength

Cordelia's journey in the magical realm is not without obstacles. She encounters corrupt nobles, ancient evils, and life-threatening adventures. However, it is this very journey that unveils her inner strength and determination.

Readers witness Cordelia's transformation from a timid girl who had a troubled life on Earth to a fierce and resourceful magician who stands up against injustice. Her experiences at Whitehall School become a catalyst for her personal growth and the foundation for her incredible magical prowess.

As Cordelia learns to master her powers, she also learns valuable lessons about loyalty, friendship, and the consequences of using magic irresponsibly. Her complex character and multifaceted relationships make every page of her story an enthralling experience.

The Magical World Beyond Whitehall

Cordelia's journey transcends the walls of Whitehall School of Witchcraft. Nuttall masterfully weaves a narrative that extends into neighboring realms and introduces readers to a captivating array of magical beings.

From encounters with dragons and elves to navigating political intrigues, Cordelia's adventures take her far and wide throughout Loxmere. Every new encounter brings new revelations, challenges, and opportunities for Cordelia to shine.

As Cordelia explores Loxmere and learns about its complex history, readers discover a world rich in detail and imagination. The vibrant visuals and unique lore make Schooled In Magic a series that captivates readers of all ages.

The Appeal of Cordelia Cooper's Story

With two years left to go at the College of Wizardry in the University of Kronisburg, Cordelia Cooper is called back to Pango Island. The people she left in charge of her case have proved less than trustworthy and the sea elves and the lizardmen were not being treated fairly.

Interrupting her studies to go around the world to get back to Pango Island wasn't something she wanted to do but she didn't have a lot of choice. She had an obligation to the sea elves and the lizardmen. To make things worse, the arrogant and self-righteous Intercessor of Noron, Miguel Cordoba, has decided that it's his duty to accompany her on her "noble quest."

From Kronisburg to the Kingdom Isles, from the Kingdom Isles to adventures in Amonrai—and all that's before they even get to Pango Island and find out what's happened to the sea elves. What's happened isn't good and Cordelia and Miguel are honor bound to do something about it.

The Governor of Pango Island is about to be Schooled in Magic.
