"The author has beautifully captured the power of nature and love in healing and empowering the soul."★★★★ A Daily Romance

"I picked this book up based on a recommendation from a friend, she raved about how good it was, how great the characters were and almost incidentally how well written the sex scenes were, I was a bit sceptical, but I was wrong, so wrong, this book is all that and more. Survivors from a plane crash, they could not be more polar opposites, but circumstances make it so that they have to work together or they will die."★★★★ Denise Webber

"Best book I have read in a long time. Story line is fresh. The writing is excellent - I feel as though I was there with them. Covered all the realms of emotion. Everyone should read."★★★★ T Holleran.

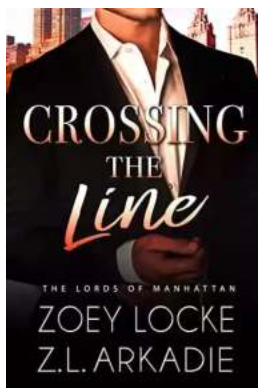

"A totally amazing book that is full of plot twists and turns the entire way through. It has it all, romance, danger, excitement, fear, and a struggle for survival."★★★★ Janie S

“Reading addict but first review. This story was just wonderful. I laughed, cried and worried about them both. I will contemplate this story for a long while.”★★★★ ProsiePosie

“The plot on this one has a few layers to it. It’s an adventure, it’s a 'lose yourself to find yourself', and it’s a romance. I have to point out right away that I loved how this story is rough and gritty around the edges both in the backdrop and the characters. This isn't a glossed over and watered-down version of a story. It's very descriptive of what it might really be like, deprivations and emotional swings and all for someone who is lost and presumed dead in a jungle hundreds of miles from civilization.”★★★★ Sophia Rose

“Wow! An absolutely stunning suspense in a highly unusual setting, Lost in Kakadu was brilliant.”★★★★ Brenda Telford
