Our thrilled readers: "I like it! Short chapters, quick scene changes and themes taken from today's news make a lot of things easy to understand. The detailed descriptions of locations alternate with a bird's-eye view, and the authors manage to make every chapter compact and exciting. With the last sentence, it's clear that marketing experts know how to write – when is Volume 2 coming out?”

“Exhilarating, great writing! A nice mixture of Dan Brown, James Bond, Jason Bourne, and a little Viennese humor thrown in for good measure. Solid research on the locations and surprising plot twists. All in all, a successful debut, definitely worth reading. Looking forward to the second installment!”

“My expectations weren't just met, they were exceeded. The entertaining and sometimes peculiar characters and the detailed historical backgrounds and locations make the book a real pleasure to read. The writing style is short and concise, no convoluted sentences – I like it! Normally I'm not interested in world religions or their history, but with Tom Wagner I was happy to be on board! In short: I'm going to be a repeat offender. ;)”

“I'm a huge Dan Brown fan, and I was a little skeptical at the beginning – but Tom Wagner won me over after just a few pages! Great book, looking forward to more!”
