What Amazon readers are saying about the series:

★★★★★ 'Awesome book. It was hard to put down.'

□□□□ 'A very interesting story of two people who display the fact that they are just human, imperfect, quite loyal to their career and eventually to each other... There was certainly no shortage of intense events throughout the book, especially toward the end.'

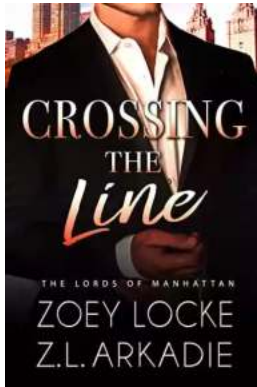

□□□□□ 'This spy thriller was probably the most enjoyable read I've had for quite a while... I learned about diving, the living conditions in submarines and the quiet war in intelligence services. Informative indeed. I am also a sap for a good romantic interest in an altogether excellent spy story... I am convinced Stephen Makk is an author of note in the making and is to be followed with keen interest. The comfortable narrative and building of suspense are just too good for this not to be true.'

□□□□□ 'Great storyline. Excellent book. As a former Brit veteran who served during the Cold War specializing in Comms, Diving, Int and Humint, I was hooked... Kudos, Stephen. You now have a fan not just for Tom and Irina but all the rest of your books.'

□□□□ 'I really enjoyed reading this story. A good mix of adventure, suspense, romance...'

□□□□□ 'Five stars. It is a very good read. Fast moving with a very good end. I loved it.'
