When it became clear that our dog Rats had no intention of calming down I decided to watch him closely, thinking stupidly that there is no way a dog can carry on amazing me. It soon became apparent that the only reason he was put on this earth was to make me look stupid and to reaffirm what my wife has always known I AM A PRAT!!

This book takes off where the last one ended. It will come as no surprise that men and dogs are more alike than we like to think, feed us, water us, play with us, then let us sleep and we become obedient servants to our chosen females!!
